The screenshot shows the ProQuest Central homepage. The search bar is at the top, with a magnifying glass icon and a search button. Below the search bar, there are links for 'Full text' and 'Peer reviewed'. The main content area features a 'ProQuest Central' header with navigation links: 'Basic Search', 'Advanced', 'Publications', 'Browse', and 'About'. Below this, there is a section for 'Subject coverage' and 'Included databases'. The 'Subject coverage' section lists various fields of study, and the 'Included databases' section lists specific databases. On the right side, there is a 'Want to Learn More?' section with links to 'Search the online Help', 'Learn about search syntax changes in the new ProQuest', 'Discover answers to common questions at ProQuest's Product Support Center', and 'Got an uncommon question? Contact our Customer Support Team'. Below this is a 'Search tip' section with advice on using quotation marks and OR to find specific phrases. At the bottom right, there is a 'Research Support Suite' section with links to 'Papers Invited', 'COS Funding Opportunities', and 'COS Scholar Universe'. The page is annotated with red numbers: '1' points to the search bar, '2a' points to the search button, '3' points to the 'Advanced' link, and '26' points to the 'Included databases' section.
